DR. W. M. HILL IS NO MORE.

Aged and Honored Physician Succumbs to Infirmities of Old Age.

WAS 78 YEARS OLD.

Was Once a Member of the City Council and Filled the Position Well.

Dr. William M. Hill, who had been confined to his bed for several weeks, died of senility at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been unconscious at intervals for four or five days. He would rally from his stupor for a while, but failed constantly in strength from time he was taken down. He never recovered from the carbuncle that appeared on his neck two or three years ago; his sight had been failing for some time, and during last few months he was unable to recognize his most intimate friends when he met them on the streets.

Dr. Hill began the study of medicine when quite young with Dr. D. J. Gish, and after graduating at Hahmann Homeopathic College in Philadelphia, in 1861, returned to this county and began practicing at Liberty church, where he remained for four or five years. He then came to the city and entered into partnership with Dr. D. J. Gish. There were only seven homeopathic physicians in the state when Dr. Hill graduated. Now there are 150. He loved his profession and was very successful, building up quite a large practice.

He was a genial, highminded gentleman and was a friend to everybody. He never failed to respond to the call of the poor who needed his services and had the esteem of all. He served a term as chairman of the council, and always took deep interest in all public enterprises. He was a member of the Christian church for forty years or more, and, unless professionally prevented, hardly ever failed to be in his seat before the weight of years pressed too heavily upon him. He was sensitive to the extreme about his age, and there is no definite knowledge, probably, as to the exact number of his years, though he is supposed to have neared the four score limit—probably 76 or 78 years. He was married to Miss Alice Cayce, who survives him. He has several brothers in the county. Funeral services will be held at the Christian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. D. Smith. Interment in Hopewell.

House Breaking.

Sandy Bellington, the colored hostler of Mr. W. T. Tard, was arrested yesterday morning on a warrant sworn out by William Alexander, colored, who is in the employ of Mr. E. M. Flack. Alexander charges Bellington with having gained forcible entrance into his house about 7 o'clock Sunday night and stealing $7 in money. Bellington was placed in jail to await his trial before Judge Brasher yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Bohannon Dead.

The wife of Mr. J. H. Bohannon died at her home on Durrett Avenue last Saturday. She was 51 years of age and had been ill from pneumonia for several days. She leaves her husband and ten children to mourn her departure. She was for many years a member of the Bethel Methodist church, a general favorite with her neighbors and had many friends. The burial took place in Hopewell Sunday afternoon.

Women Aroused.

Women of the U. D. C., of Kentucky, numbering 3,000 have formed a lobby to urge the passage of a bill appropriating $20,000 for a Kentucky monument at Shiloh. Many of the women will go to Frankfort.

FIRE LADDIES HOLD MEETING

Resolutions Expressive of Regret at Retirement of Chief Randle.

ROPER REMEMBERED

Addresses By the Mayor and City Judge.

The fire department held an interesting meeting in the hall of their building last Saturday night.

After the meeting had been called to order the following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted and ordered to be spread on the records of the department, a copy furnished to former Chief, George E. Randle, and a copy furnished to each of the city papers for publication:

WHEREAS, This department has learned that our Chief, George E. Randle, has tendered his resignation:

Mr. Hester has had long experience on the Fire Department; is a member of the contracting firm of Hester & Thompson, and is one of the most popular young business men in city.

and that his resignation, has been accepted by the Mayor and City Council, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we hereby express our deepest regret at the retirement of Chief Randle from this department, feeling that after 22 years of faithful service—12 years of which he has, as Chief, most efficiently controlled our movements in fighting the fire-fends after serving ten years in the ranks—we and the city are losing a fireman whose place will be difficult to fill and a gentleman worthy of the fullest confidence.

RESOLVED, That while we cannot fittingly express in words our regret at Chief Randle's action, he has the assurance that every man of the department will always remember him for his uniform courtesy to us, his watchfulness in the hour of danger, as well as his courage and deliberate judgment when such qualities manifest the true man at the trying moment when battling with the flames.

RESOLVED, That while necessity demands that we shall extend the parting hand to our Chief as a brother fireman, we heartily wish him all the happiness he so richly deserves, and may his years be many and prosperous.

WOLF HUNT.

Exciting Chase in the Vicinity of Hawkins.

A thrilling wolf hunt occurred in the vicinity of Hawkins, in the western part of Christian county, last week. About four years ago a man named Parsons caught a large, gray wolf in a trap. He exhibited him in this city and finally sold him to a butcher at Dawson, who kept him in captivity until a short while ago when he made his escape and returned to the Hawkins neighborhood and rejoined a pack still there. He had a long chain attached to him and could be easily tracked by the mark of the chain. A hunting party was organized and the trail was struck of the pack of five wolves. In the chase all escaped except the old wolf, who was handicapped by the chain and was finally overtaken by the dogs and killed by a young man named Sharp. In his fight the chain would wrap around bushes and the animal would stop long enough to cut down the bushes with his teeth and resume the fight. He was holding the dogs at bay when killed. The hunt caused excitement in that part of the county. The wolves have destroyed many sheep and other stock during the last few years.

The Weather.

For Kentucky: Tuesday partly cloudy and colder.

Rev. W. N. Cleveland, a brother of the former President, is dying of paralysis at Columbus, Ohio.

The Democratic District Committee will meet in Madisonville tomorrow to call a Congressional primary election.

March Field, the millionaire merchant of Chicago, is critically ill at a hotel in New York, of pneumonia.

Russia and Venezuela have severed diplomatic relations. Minister Russell, the American minister, is looking after French interests at Caracas.

A boundary line between Boyle and Casey counties, long a subject of dispute, has been settled in favor of Casey county. Boyle loses 250 acres containing 12 or 13 voters.

Representative Southall has introduced a bill calculated to remove doubt as to which is the right Tuesday to elect a senator. It changes the time to the first Wednesday after the organization of the General Assembly.

Representative Yaden, of Laurel, a Republican member, wants a bill passed requiring all candidates for office to file with the grand jury an itemized statement of their campaign expenses. He says it is getting so a poor man cannot run for office in his part of the State.

Two constitutional amendments have been proposed in the legislature. One by Mr. Bourne adds a new qualification by requiring voters to show their tax receipts before they can vote. The other proposed by Senator Lancaster adds a uniform franchise license and income tax in lieu of a tax on personal property.

Although President Morals has been run out of the county, the hostilities still continue in Sando Domingo. A bloody battle was fought between troops of Gen. Caceres, the temporary president and the insurgents Guayubin. Many Generals on both sides were killed or wounded.

SHOT HIMSELF

Accidentally and the Wound Results in Death.

Pod, Ky., Jan. 13.—Mr. Ollie C. Gray shot himself, near Clardy, Thursday night, and died from the effects of the wound. He was handling a revolver, when the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball taking effect in his bowels. Dr. Durham was summoned, but could do nothing to relieve the wounded man and he suffered great agony. Mr. Gray was about twenty-four years old and a widower, his wife having died last fall. Since the death of his wife he and his little two-year-old child had been living with the former's father-in-law, Mr. J. K. Thomas, at whose house the fatal occurred. Cy Klone.

For testimonials of remarkable cures see Book on the Blood, No. 3, C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Symptoms of Disease.

Disease is a most difficult thing to wrestle with in poultry. It is far easier to prevent it than it is to combat it when it obtains a foothold. Often a person will employ more time and medicine than the bird is worth. The following will help most poultrymen to locate a difficulty and will also suggest treatment.

When the excitement secreted by the kidneys, which is normally pure white, appears yellow, though the droppings are solid and the bird appears perfectly healthy, look out for bowel trouble.

When the crop is hard, distended and unyielding there is danger of the bird being crop bound.

When the discharges are streaked with blood it is time to give preventives for diarrhoea.

When the joints are hot and swollen and the fowl is disinclined to stand, rheumatism has taken hold.

When the nostrils are clogged with dirt and the eyes water widely if possible cases of crop by timely treatment. If the case is bad apply the hatchet.

When a bird is lame in one foot and a small swelling is observed remove it to a place where there are no roosts and compel it to roost on some straw or other material. It is bumble foot, and is cured in this manner.

When a hen drops down behind, goes to the nest often but does not lay she is suffering from a disorder of the oviduct and might as well be killed and eaten.

When a bird is "going light," has a good appetite, but passes food from the bowels undigested, it is the early stages of consumption and treatment is useless.

When a bird has a weakness with no disorder of the liver, feed lighter and give plenty of the bone forming food.

When new fowls are bought they should be quarantined until one is assured that they have no disease that is communicative to the flock.

Greenish discharges, turning to frothy white, are given as a symptom of cholera.

A dark, purple color indicates congestion of the liver. The Homestead.

FAMOUS BLOODHOUNDS.

Two Genuine Detective Find a Robbers' Den in a Water Tank—Stolen Articles Returned.

Nick Havenport kept what is called in the south "a general store," in the little town of Valley Head, Ala. One morning Mr. Havenport went to the store to find tins and boxes broken open, scattered about the floor, while a desk containing money had been smashed and its contents stolen, relates the Pilgrim. The robbers left no clew whatever to their identity. Luckily he had heard about Echo and O'Higgins, two bloodhounds noted for hunting down criminals. Possibly they might trace the perpetrators of the crime. A telegram sent to the Valley Head brought him the bloodhounds the same night. Without delay the dogs were led to the store. Running around the store for a moment and sniffing here and there among the articles littered upon it, both with a short bark started for the door, pulling the detective along as fast as he could run in their eagerness to follow the trail. Straight they went to the railroad track which passes through the town.

News that the canine detectives and their master had come to the village to ferret out the robbery, if possible, had spread from one end of the place to the other, and back of the dogs hurried a crowd of a score or more armed with shotguns and pistols. But they were to have a long and hard chase. Mile after mile the animals, now unleashed, scampered over the ties which their noses almost touched. At last they came to a railroad bridge, but not stopping they carefully picked their way along the perilous path, although a misstep would have thrown them between the ties and into the river below. Long after midnight the dogs halted in front of a tank used for supplying water to the locomotives.

"I wonder if they're in there," said the detective. "The dogs certainly would not stop here and act the way they do."

"I reckon they're right," said a railroad man, who had joined in the pursuit. "That tank sprang a leak some time ago, and it's empty, so anybody could easily climb up the ladder on the outside and let themselves down into it."

"Well, I will just go up and take a look inside. Give me that lantern you've got." And snatching the deed to the word, Phlipps, with pistol in one hand and lantern in the other climbed to the top of the tank, while the crowd waited breathlessly.

"Here they are, boys. Just stand in a circle round while I tell them to come out." In response to his command to surrender, in a minute a black head appeared above the top of the tank, and its owner silently crawled down the ladder, until he saw the dogs leaping at him, when he halted. Echo and O'Higgins were loosed, and then two other black heads appeared above the top of the tank. As fast as the men came down they were tied together. Then some of the party descended into the tank and found enough provisions to last them for months—all stolen from Nick Havenport's store. Most of the money taken from the store was in their pockets. Needless to say, Echo and O'Higgins had a choice supper, or rather breakfast, of bones with plenty of meat on them when they returned to Valley Head long after daylight the next morning.

HIGH SCHOOL

Boys Lost in Game of Basketball.

The basket ball game between the teams of S. K. C. and the Public High School, played Friday night, was won by the S. K. C. boys. The score was 24 to 12. The contest was snappy from start to finish, but the S. K. C. team had the advantage in long practice and much training. The line up was as follows:

H. H. S.	Forward	McCarley	S. K. C.
Waller	Forward	Holland
Young	Forward	Holland
Dabney	Guard	Warrack
Bartley	Guard	Bell, Kuykendall
Earl	Center	Smith, Kuykendall

Smith, the S. K. C. center, was injured, and Kuykendall took his place. Bell was then put in Kuykendall's position as guard.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.

DIVIDEND PAYING Oil and Mining Stocks,

Other high grade 5 per cent. guaranteed interest preferred stocks and bonds for sale. CHAS. E. WILSON, 111 So. 1st St., Louisville, Ky. has been brought up during the month as an oil well equal to any in the lower and is now a good producer. Well No. 12, Lease 47, has been drilled and is flowing well. This makes 11 wells (independent of No. 12) on lease 47, owned by the four Companies, drilled within a single "dry hole."

The four Companies (all Companies) have the three wells returned to stock holders during the year in monthly dividends, the sum of $100,000, against an actual investment in property and development of approximately $60,000.00, with a handsome surplus yet remaining in their profit fund for extra dividends, subject to the approval of the stockholders at their annual meeting to be held in January.

Withdrawal of all stock; the stock of the four Companies have been entirely withdrawn from the market. An announcement will probably be made on later than January 15, of the status with respect to the stock of the International Oil and Gas Company, which will begin dividends in January at the same rate as the other four Oil and Gas Companies. This Company has demonstrated by its first well already mentioned that it has an exciting prospect, with development, equal to that in excess of the four Oil and Gas Companies first operating in the last month of December, and it has a surplus in its profit fund of approximately $100,000.00 in the present treasury, able for dividends. Any customer desiring to secure this stock will have to send in their subscription prior to the date of its withdrawal.

The International Oil and Gas Company, now has its profit fund approximately $100,000.00, against an investment in the property and development of a name of less than $20,000, which is a remarkable record for the Oil and Gas industry.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra,
tabernacle course No. 6, Jan. 18, stands high in the ranks of ladies' orchestras. It is first class in every particular—every one an artist; every number a gem. Following are some of the press notices where they have appeared:

Burton, O.—When an orchestra is encored after every number in response to insistent and prolonged applause, even to being compelled to render an encore after the last number, it argues that the concert was surely of unquestionable pleasure and satisfaction, and there can be no doubt as to the musical status of such a company. These things speak most eloquently of the high grade and success of the work of the Cleveland Orchestra.

Goshen, Ind.—Played in their usual good style, and it always a pleasure to hear them. Their renditions are unusually clear and precise, with a refreshing dash and military swing that surprises one that it be possible for a woman to execute thus. They stand high in the ranks of ladies' orchestras.

Glenville, O.—Every number was encored or had to be repeated. The ladies are versatile and display rare ability and talent.

The Power of Love.

What promises to be the dramatic event of the season will be the coming appearance here of Theodore Kremer's latest play, "The Power of Love." This play has aroused considerable discussion among the dramatic critics throughout the country, on account of its daring and most novel plot. Although it contains many startling situations and thrilling climaxes, it is entirely devoid of the cheap sensationalism usually found in dramas of this kind.
The moral tone of the play is high,
and it appeals particularly to the women. "The Power of Love" is a play of intense heart interest and appeals to the best in human nature, while the comedy elements are not overlooked. The play is interpreted by a superb cast of artists, each of whom was carefully selected for his or her peculiar fitness for the respective parts. Throughout the play many pleasing specialties are introduced by the various members of the company. A carload of elegant scenery and marvelous mechanical and electrical effects add greatly to the enjoyment of the performance.

"The Power of Love" will be seen at Holland's Opera House Wednesday evening, Jan. 17th. Best seats 50c; general admission 35c; gallery
25c.
